

Forum with the Agencies
Recreation in Elko County

Participants:

Guy D. Wagner, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Refuge Manager at Ruby Lake National Wildlife Refuge
Rod Wittenberg, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Assistant Refuge Manager, Ruby Lake NWR
NDOW

Joe Doucette, Nevada Department of Wildlife, Eastern Region Conservation Education supervisor

Jim Wilkinson, South Fork State Recreation Area manager

Ken Miller, Bureau of Land Management, Elko District Manager

Gar Abbas, U.S. Forest Service, District ranger for the Ruby Mountain Ranger District

Cheri Howell, U.S. Forest Service, Acting District Ranger, Ecologist

Sherri Eklund-Brown, Elko County

Steven Lewis, Facilitator, Extension Educator, University of Nevada Cooperative Extension Douglas County.

About 30 people attended this forum which was devoted to allowing the audience to ask questions of local land agencies about recreation on Elko County's public, state and county lands. Many questions concerned the U.S. Forest Service's Road Management Plan but audience members also asked questions concerning trails, off-road vehicles and dispersed camping.